

The Peace of Wild Things Summative Assessment (Poetry)

I can use a mentor poem(s) to draft and revise my own poem.

4 exceptional/exceeds standards	3 proficient/meets standards	2 approaching standards	1 needs help to meet standards
Use of imagery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I show much more than I tell, relying upon strong imagery that appeals to my readers' senses. Over the course of my poem, my imagery clearly reveals my intended message. My readers arrive at this message easily because I have used the best imagery to lead them to it. 	Use of imagery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I show more than I tell, relying upon some strong imagery that appeals to my readers' senses. Over the course of my poem, my imagery reveals my intended message. My readers arrive at this message without too much difficulty because I have used adequate imagery to lead them to it. 	Use of imagery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I sometimes show rather than tell, relying upon imagery that appeals to my readers' senses. Over the course of my poem, my imagery attempts to reveal my intended message. My readers may have some difficulty arriving at this message, however, because I may not have used adequate imagery to lead them to it. 	Use of imagery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> I tell much more than I show, forgetting to use imagery that appeals to my readers' senses. Over the course of my poem, I have told my readers what to think and how to feel.
